James Guider was sentenced by Judge Kohler Monday to one year in the penitentiary, upon charge of helping to rob the Erie station agent at Barberton last fall. James Bell and Wm. Straight, implicated in this robbery were sentenced to the Reformatory some time ago.

JUDGE KOHLER HOME.

Judge Kohler has returned from Elyria and is holding court in Summit county, and Judge Hayden is expected by Tuesday.

TROUBLE OVER WATER.

Wm. E. Daugherty has applied for an order of Court restraining John T. Hawes from constructing or maintaining an embankment to prevent surface water from flowing in its natural course from the property of the plaintiff over the property of the defendant. They live adjoining each other in that section of Portage township recently annexed to Akron. Their homes are situated on a slope with Howe's property below that of Daugherty. Naturally, when rain fell, the water ran from Daugherty's property across that of Hawes, and the latter built an embankment to prevent it. Daugherty says there has been water dammed back into his property for some time, and that in addition to its being stagnant and menacing the health of his household, water has been running from the dam into his cellar.

TO MARSHAL LIENS.

James A. Moody in an action against Samuel R. Huston to collect a judgment amounting to about $50 has petitioned that the Central Savings Bank be required to set up its claim against certain property of Huston, and that the Court determine the priority of the claims of the plaintiff and the bank.

An action has been commenced by Carrie M. Sadler vs. Nettie M. and Harry G. Miller to foreclose a mortgage held on certain property in Portage township. The amount of the mortgage exceeds $1200. Cruelty is also the cause given in the petition of Etta Cook, Akron, for divorce from Howard L. Cook. They were married August 11, 1899, and have one child. The plaintiff alleges that on July 15, 1900, he kicked her violently, and that on June 20, 1901, while intoxicated, he threw her down, and pounded her head on the floor, and that he also abused her, Oct. 28, 1901, since which time they have not lived together. She asks for custody of their child.

A HAPPY EVENT.Children's Day Doubly Observed In Grace Reformed Church.

Children's day at Grace Reformed church yesterday was a double success. Special programs were given at the morning and evening services. The church was packed at both services and many said it was one of the best days Grace Sunday school ever had. The little folks took a prominent part and all did credit to themselves and the school. At the evening service Miss Matilda Johnson, of Cleveland, gave readings, which touched the hearts of all. Miss Gabel, of Chicago, sang a solo at the evening service, and Mrs. Richard Ward and Mr. E. A. Upham sang a duet.

The decorations were most beautiful. Each class in the school furnished a different floral design and all were tastefully arranged by Mr. Frank Ream's Bible class, which had charge of the decorations. Strings of daisies were hung from the walls and palms and cut flowers filled the platform. Superintendent Frank, who for over a quarter of a century has been at the head of Grace school, wore his best smile while he conducted the exercises. It was a glad day, and all who were present rejoiced in the blessing and prosperity which has attended the efforts of those who have helped to make the school what it is.

It was stated that Ben Rudeminsky is unable to leave his bed, as a result of the clash of Saturday morning, so the cases were all continued until next Monday. All those arrested are out on bond.

The groom neglected to get a marriage license during the day and it was necessary to call Deputy Probate Judge Pardee from his home. It is believed that the squire was derailed in the osculatory ceremony as he refused to talk on the matter Monday, when approached by a reporter.

BLOWN TO BITS.Man and Woman Blown to Pieces by an Explosion.

Lafayette, Tenn., June 23.—A terrific explosion occurred early today at the railroad camp of William Park, four miles from here. Herd Lones and Martha Chapman were blown to pieces and the house in which they were sleeping was demolished. A baby also in the house was thrown out quite a distance, but was unharmed.

Four cases of dynamite were reported missing from the contractors' magazine, and it is thought these were placed under the house by enemies of the pair. Officers are making an investigation.

Col. M. W. Hoye, who has been at Mt. Clemens for several days, was called home by a press of business in his department Monday. Col. TIGHTHold On a Half Million.*Oberlin Will Have $500,000 Fund.*The Amount Needed to Clinch Rockefeller's Offer.

Oberlin, O., June 23.—At the meeting of the trustees of Oberlin college, held here today, it was announced that the institution would undoubtedly secure the $500,000 fund offered by John D. Rockefeller, who started $200,000 provided the trustees would obtain $300,000 from other persons. It is stated that the latter amount has been fully pledged, and Mr. Rockefeller will be notified to that effect. The trustees elected Prof. Charles W. Morrison as director of the conservatory of music in connection with the college.

The matter of electing a successor to the late President Barrows will be taken up later in the day.

LIGHT SENTENCEFor Charles Mitchell, Who Wore a Masonic Pin.

The case of Charles Mitchell, a peddler, arrested for wearing a Masonic pin, was disposed of Monday morning by Squire P. H. Hoffman, acting for Mayor Doyle, by the dismissal of Mitchell after he had paid the costs. Mitchell is not a Mason. It is evident that he did not know he was violating a law, for he was greatly frightened when arrested and tried. He also promised to leave Akron immediately on his release, and not return.

OBJECT TO VACATING A RAILROAD CROSSING.Large Delegation From Macedonia Before the County Commissioners, Monday.

Citizens of Macedonia can get up a mass meeting, even if they are obliged to come to Akron to hold it. There were 26 of them in the office of the County Commissioners Monday, objecting to a report of road viewers recommending that a thoroughfare in Macedonia be closed for the benefit of the Pennsylvania Railroad Co.

The road figuring in the controversy is the highway leading from Hudson to Cleveland, and the particular section mentioned is that which crosses the railroad tracks, near a certain "under-grade" crossing in the village of Macedonia. Mr. Grant Bliss, of Hudson, agent for the Pennsylvania, claims that a majority of the villagers of Macedonia signed a petition requesting that the portion of the road crossing the tracks be vacated, as the crossing was regarded as very dangerous. There were three crossings but one was closed some time ago, and if the present crossing is done away with, the one left will be under the grade of the tracks. While it is admitted that this one is by far the safest of the three, some of the citizens object to closing the second one, as they say it will make the situation very inconvenient. Several of the citizens even declared that they had been induced to sign the petition before they understood the nature of it. Mr. B. A. Robinette stated to a Democrat reporter that it would be very inconvenient for the village if the crossing were closed, and that it had been decided at an informal meeting of citizens Friday evening to take steps to prevent closing it. As the result of the meeting, a representative was sent to Akron Saturday to investigate the situation. He returned home and reported that the 20-day limit for objections would expire Monday evening, and that prompt action was required. Hence the delegation in Akron Monday.

Zanesville, O., June 23.—Mayor Jas. L. Holden was forcibly ejected from the court of Police Judge Reed this morning. The Mayor asked that an affidavit against a woman charged with intoxication be withdrawn and when the judge refused, he insisted that he had the right to withdraw it. The judge ordered Chief of Police E. J. Tracy to eject Mayor Holden from the court room. The Mayor resisted and Tracy's brother and others went to the Chief's assistance. During the melee the Mayor struck the Chief on the jaw and the latter landed on the Mayor's head with a club.

A LAWYER'S EXPERIENCE.

The story of a convicted man, a pardon and a pointer. "A good many years ago," said a well known Michigan lawyer who was reminiscing the other day, "I became greatly interested in a state prison case. A young farmer was charged with having driven off ten out of a flock of twelve sheep and sold them to a butcher. He put up a fair defense, but was convicted and sentenced to a term of three years.

"There were plenty of people who believed that he was perfectly innocent, and even the butcher who bought the sheep came in time to doubt if he had identified the right party. After the case had stirred up a whole county I took a hand in it. In my petition to the governor I had the evidence of the young man's father, mother and sweetheart, and I got eight of the jurors to sign it. I made out such a good case that the governor took it under advisement and finally agreed to issue a pardon. In speaking to me of the case he said:

"There is no sort of doubt in my mind that this was a case of mistaken identity, and I shall be only too glad to restore the young man to liberty."

"It became my pleasant duty to drive seven miles over the muddest of roads to bear the news to the parents that a pardon was to be issued. The old man was under the weather and in bed in a room off the parlor. The wife received me and sobbed over the good news and then went in to break it to her husband. That partition wall was thin, and they both spoke in loud tones, and I plainly heard her say:

"Oh, Samuel, there's a man here who says our John is to be pardoned tomorrow!"

"You don't say," he exclaimed.

"Yes, it's certainly so."

"Going to be pardoned right out, eh?"

"Yes, he is."

"Waal, waal, that's good news. Say, Mary, what a fool John was not to get the other two sheep while he was about it."

"I left the rejoicing farmhouse, intending to wire the governor to withhold the pardon," said the lawyer, "but I presently struck me that I had advanced about twenty good reasons why the young man couldn't be guilty, and I therefore decided to sing small and let things go on. He was duly pardoned and sent home, and the governor never met me for years after without congratulating me on rehabilitating an innocent man wrongly convicted!"—Detroit Free Press.

COOKING HINTS.

For a change try boiling apples in sweet cider. When apples begin to get tasteless, this makes a change. Cocoa loses that raw taste if it is allowed to simmer for a good five minutes after being added to the boiling milk.

A cut potato dropped in the fat in which vegetables are to be fried will indicate the proper temperature by turning brown.

Have charcoal fires for broiling if you wish for perfect cookery. The hot flames close the pores quickly, and the result is very tender meat.

For preparing soup for invalids make a great point of delicate flavorings. Avoid much turnip or carrot, and instead have a suspicion of bay leaf, sweet herbs and mace.

When roasting a chicken in the oven, roast it in the usual way until it is nicely brown, then turn it back up ward and let it remain so until cooked. It will be found that the juice of the chicken runs into the breast and makes it moist and delicious.

"John," said the man who was dominated by his mother-in-law, "do you believe there is any sense in a man marrying a whole family?"

"I do," said John. "I believe a man with seven charming daughters would be a fool if he didn't seize the first opportunity to do it."
